

Robert D. Zaruta

Shareholder

Bob's practice is focused on a variety of labor & employment matters, including litigation. He has extensive experience working with both private and public employers, counseling clients on hiring and firing issues, wage and hour issues, employer/independent contractor issues, collective bargaining, employee handbooks, and compliance with workplace laws including FMLA, Title VII, ADA, ADEA, FLSA and more.

He represents several public school systems, assisting in disciplinary issues, grievances, arbitration and union contract negotiations. His practice also includes representing employers in defense of discrimination, sexual harassment, wage and hour, unemployment compensation, workers' compensation, wrongful termination and other employment-related claims. He also advises educational institutions at all levels on Title IX compliance, providing training, guidance, and services on all aspects of the Title IX grievance process, including investigations.

Bob has defended employers in EEOC, DOL, PHRC and other agency investigations alleging discrimination or pay practice violations. He offers sexual harassment training for employers, assists employers in handling sexual harassment complaints, and conducts internal investigations. He has represented employers in unfair labor practices actions, including appearances before the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania, the National Labor Relations Board and the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board.

- Pennsylvania
- New Jersey
- U.S. District Court, Middle District of Pennsylvania
- U.S. District Court, Western District of Pennsylvania

Representative Experience

- Successfully defended a school district client against a claim of sex discrimination in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania. The Court granted the client's Motion for Summary Judgment on all counts and ordered the dismissal of the lawsuit in its entirety
- Obtained a favorable decision from the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania for a client. The Court granted the client's motion for summary judgment thereby dismissing all ADA and FMLA claims
- Successfully argued on behalf of a school district in an appeal to the Commonwealth Court. On appeal, the underlying trial court decision was reversed, and the Commonwealth Court granted the school district's petition to vacate a labor arbitration award
- Successfully defended a school against an unfair labor practice charge before the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania by securing a reversal of the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board's Final Order
- Successfully argued on behalf of a county against a labor union's appeal to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. On appeal, the Supreme Court affirmed the underlying Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board's Final Order which found that the County did not commit unfair labor practices. It has been estimated this result saved the County a minimum of $6 million
- Successfully argued against the enforcement of a physician's non-compete agreement
- Successfully resolved a client's unemployment compensation and workers' compensation tax audits
- Involved in lawsuits filed in state and federal courts, as well as charges filed with the EEOC and PHRC, including claims for wrongful discharge and race, age, sex, religion and disability discrimination
